A. Read the passages and answer the questions. (18%@3%)

Do you love the nature? If you enjoy a green life like the writer, Amanda, this book will be your choice. Amanda wrote about Dolly who was tired of the city life. She decided to get some new experiences at the countryside. You will learn more about the wild animals who are cute and clever while you are reading about Dolly.

Tim is a great fan of the sea. When he was young at the age of ten, he decided to travel across the sea with his favourite boat. His dream finally came true after twelve years. The sea was full of mysteries which made his journey truly exciting. What did he see throughout his journey? How did he overcome all the difficulties? Find it out yourself by reading the book.

Tick the best answer.

B. Circle the correct answers in the brackets. (12%@2%)

I have a big fish bowl in my room. There are 1. (a lot of / a few / a little) fish in it. Some fish are big and they eat 2. (a lot of / a few / a little) food. But some fish are small and they only eat 3. (a lot of / a few / a little) food. There is 4. (a lot of / a few / a little) grass in the bowl but there are only three coloured stones at the bottom of the bowl. Though the fish bowl only have 5. (a lot of / a few / a little) coloured stones, I still think it is beautiful. But if the fish bowl has 6. (a lot of / a few / a little) coloured stones, then it will be more beautiful.
